Michael Kelly Joins Husch Blackwell in Kansas City

Husch Blackwell is pleased to welcome Michael J. Kelly to the firm as a litigation senior counsel in its Real Estate, Development & Construction group.

Based in the firm's Kansas City office, Kelly focuses his practice on complex construction and engineering matters. He works with design professionals, architects, engineers, general contractors and other critical stakeholders and has experience with contract disputes, Federal Employers Liability Act (FELA) claims, construction litigation and professional liability.

Kelly earned his J.D. from University of Kansas School of Law and his B.A. from Kansas State University. He currently serves as Mayor of Roeland Park, Kan. He also co-founded and leads Climate Action KC.
