

NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: MAY 28, 2019

Service

Land Use

Industry

Real Estate,
Development &
Construction

Bill White Joins Husch Blackwell's Madison Office

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that noted real estate lawyer William F. White has joined the firm as counsel. A fixture of Madison's business community for over three decades, White counsels clients primarily in the areas of real estate development and land use and has also served as general counsel and principal legal advisor for a wide variety of business clients.

White has significant experience litigating land use and development issues on behalf of property owners, developers, municipalities and businesses. He has served as special counsel on land-use issues to a variety of government entities and agencies and has participated extensively in the development of cooperative plans, boundary agreements, comprehensive master plans, municipal incorporations and tax increment financing.

"We are excited to welcome Bill to Husch Blackwell and to make available to our clients his unique market knowledge and perspectives," said Mindi Giftos, Husch Blackwell's Madison office managing partner. "Few lawyers in private practice can match the depth of his experience and his thorough understanding of how to get things done in Madison."

A former long-time partner with Michael Best & Friedrich LLP, White has significant ties with the Madison business community. He is a Past Chairman and Executive Committee Member with the Madison Region Economic Partnership and a Past Chairman of the Dane County Regional Airport Commission. Since 1995, he has been recognized in the Best Lawyers in America directory and has been listed in Wisconsin Super Lawyers since 2005 in the area of Land Use and Zoning Law/Litigation.