

NEWS RELEASES

PUBLISHED: FEBRUARY 3, 2011

Services

Commercial
Contracting

Mergers &
Acquisitions

Former Anheuser-Busch Associate General Counsel Joins Husch Blackwell's Corporate Group

James Mathis Joins Husch Blackwell

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that James W. Mathis has joined the firm's St. Louis, Missouri, office as a Partner in the area of Corporate law. He has extensive experience leading complex commercial transactions and mergers and acquisitions. In addition, he has advised corporate clients on entertainment and advertising law, telecommunications, securities and executive compensation, and risk management/insurance matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Mathis was a Partner at The Stolar Partnership LLP (2010-2011), where he also began his legal career (1998-2003). Between the two stints in private practice, Mathis served as Corporate Counsel for Solutia, Inc. (2003), and Associate General Counsel for Anheuser-Busch Companies, Inc., in its Corporate and Commercial Law Group (2004-2010).

Mathis earned his J.D. from Washington University School of Law (1998), where he was Associate Editor for Washington University Law Quarterly, and graduated Order of the Coif. He earned his B.S., summa cum laude, from Southwest Missouri State University (1995).