Lawdragon Names Julianne Story Among Leading Corporate Employment Lawyers

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that partner Julianne P. Story has been named to this year's Lawdragon 500 Leading Corporate Employment Lawyers guide.

Lawdragon recognizes leading U.S. attorneys who advise businesses, universities, nonprofits and other organizations dealing with their most pressing matters. This year's guide is Lawdragon's 16th honoring the nation's top advisors on workforce issues.

Story, based in Kansas City, focuses on providing clients with strategic counsel on all facets of labor and employment law. She has led clients through multiple high-stakes employment disputes, has tried cases in federal and state court and has obtained summary judgment in federal and state court on behalf of defendant employers in lawsuits involving allegations of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA), and wage and hour violations.
