Husch Blackwell 2022 Annual Report

While 2022 was a challenge across multiple industries, our firm continued to forge ahead, making substantial progress on our strategic plan to grow and to create a community that values diversity, equity, and inclusion. Across the board and by nearly every measure, our performance outpaced legal industry peers throughout 2022. With the support of our communities, clients, and colleagues, we continue to fearlessly pursue collective success.

Our 2022 Annual Report details our uncommon achievements over the past year, including:

how we are raising the bar for client service and experience in the legal industry our trailblazing Future of Work program, which not only benefits firm operations, but also enhances the lives of our people the unique ways in which we are leveraging technology for both our team and our clients our continued commitment to creating a collaborative, inclusive, and progressive workplace our efforts to bring impactful changes to our communities
