Emily Stedman Named Fellow of Wisconsin Law Foundation

National law firm Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce Emily Stedman has been named a Fellow of the Wisconsin Law Foundation.

The Fellows organization honors State Bar of Wisconsin members who have achieved significant accomplishments in their careers and contributed leadership and service to their communities. The Fellows membership is limited to 2.5% of the State Bar's total membership. Members are nominated by their peers and elected by the Fellows Board of Trustees.

Stedman, who was elected to the Husch Blackwell partnership effective January 1, 2024, is a member of the firm's commercial litigation practice team. Based in Milwaukee, she represents a wide range of clients, including both small businesses and international corporations, at all phases of sophisticated commercial litigation, from investigation to appeal, in state and federal courts. Stedman also participates in the firm's NextGen Committee, encouraging younger attorneys to take part in firm initiatives, programming, and events.
