Husch Blackwell's 2023 performance has once again proven that our approach to the business of law is not only uncommon, but also effective. The unparalleled value we offer was continually affirmed, from our sixth consecutive year of an industry-leading Net Promoter Score to our recognition among the country's most innovative firms and selection as a finalist for The American Lawyer's prestigious Best Law Firm of the Year award.

Our 2023 Annual Report details a year of uncommon achievements, including: a Net Promoter Score that exceeds not only the industry average, but also that of beloved brands outside the legal industry a net increase of nearly 100 attorneys, strengthening our capabilities across all of our industry groups developments by our in-house AI and data science team that improve our efficiency and client service our growing national footprint, both in The Link Virtual Office and new brick-and-mortar locations our dedication to creating a collaborative, inclusive, and progressive work environment our continued commitment to pro bono work and community involvement
