OVERVIEW

Ernesto is a key player in high-profile real estate and public financing transactions across the Midwest, advising clients on major developments that impact the local landscape and economy.

He primarily counsels developers and public bodies on all aspects of development, from land acquisition through the construction and leasing of commercial, industrial and residential properties. Applying his broad knowledge of real estate transactions, Ernesto brings specialized value to clients navigating complex project finance issues surrounding commercial, industrial and public infrastructure projects such as logistics centers, renewable energy plants, greenway networks and professional sports arenas.

This versatility allows Ernesto to provide unique insights into helping clients achieve their goals. He regularly guides clients through the structuring, negotiation, adoption and implementation of public financing tools and incentives, such as tax increment financing (TIF), tax abatements, special taxing districts, and state and federal tax credits. He also negotiates commercial, office and industrial leases for landlords and tenants and has extensive experience in drafting state and local legislation and assisting in its refinement and passage. His work as counsel to a variety of public bodies also allows Ernesto to guide projects with a holistic perspective on the issues that matter most to both public and private stakeholders.

HUSCH BLACKWELL

In addition to assisting clients, Ernesto plays a key role in recruiting new talent to the firm as a member (and former Chair) of the firm's Executive Recruiting Committee in St. Louis. He also is proudly involved with the firm's Diversity, Equity & Inclusion initiatives.

Featured Experience

Redeveloped Logistics Center Is a Win for Client and Community

Ernesto and his team represented NorthPoint Development in the acquisition and redevelopment of a stalled, 165-acre industrial logistics center embroiled in multimillion-dollar litigation. The team unwound existing public financing incentives and negotiated and implemented new public financing incentives, including real property tax abatement and New Markets Tax Credits (NMTC).

The Hazelwood Logistics Center NorthPoint was a front-to-end massive undertaking that spanned several years. The St. Louis Business Journal awarded the project the 2018 Building St. Louis Award in the Public/Private Project More Than $10 Million category.

Experience

DEVELOPMENT INCENTIVES & TAX CREDITS

- Represented client in multiple New Markets Tax Credits (NMTC) financing transactions for buildings in major industrial park in Kansas City, Missouri.
- Represented industrial developer in acquisition and development of 1.3 million-square-foot logistics optimization center leased to General Motors, including negotiation and adoption of real property tax abatement and creation of transportation development district to assist with financing and construction of related public improvements.
- Advised developers on numerous tax increment financing projects in Missouri, Illinois and Nebraska ranging from $5 million to $90 million in approved TIF funding.

ARENA & STADIUM DEVELOPMENT

- Retained by owners of St. Louis Blues NHL franchise to structure and negotiate governmental incentives provided by City of St. Louis to support first phase of $140 million renovation of Enterprise Center, home of the Blues and a major downtown entertainment venue. Representation involved negotiation, adoption and implementation of public financing tools such as municipal revenue bonds, Community Improvement District sales tax and successful defense of litigation challenging the constitutionality of public financing.

CORPORATE REAL ESTATE

- Represented developer in public financing for a new office tower, which consisted of $202 million Chapter 100 bond financing and $18.5 million transportation development district bond financing.
- Represented Fortune 100 publicly traded company in development of 225,000-square-foot facility costing in excess of $70 million. Financing included nearly $22 million of Missouri BUILD bonds, Chapter 100 bond financing and sales tax abatement.
- Counseled landlord in negotiation of office leases in 750,000-square-foot office tower.

OTHER REAL ESTATE

- Counseled lenders and developers on real estate due diligence and title insurance matters in more than 30 states.
- Represented privately held company in all real estate aspects of $95 million sale of corporate assets, including six separate river terminals (fee-owned and leased property) in multiple states.

Community Leadership

When his nephew spent a month at St. Louis Children's Hospital, Ernesto saw firsthand what a hospital can do for patients and their families. He and his wife joined the hospital's Young Friends group and assist with the fundraising event Cocktails and Clowns. The money raised allows doctors and nurses to enter the hospital rooms dressed as clowns, helping kids form positive associations with hospital staff.
