OVERVIEW

Nicole is a senior paralegal who concentrates her work in the areas of patents, trademarks, copyrights and intellectual property litigation.

Nicole assists attorneys and clients on U.S. and international patent and trademark applications and U.S. copyright registrations. She has experience with patent and trademark infringement cases tried in federal courts, and she facilitates the preparation of a variety of licenses, assignments, contracts and agreements.

Working closely with attorneys and clients on trademarks and patents, Nicole sees the entire realm of intellectual property matters from initial idea to defending trademarks. She enjoys thinking ahead for clients and legal teams, attempting to proactively prepare and streamline matters to avoid problems and work cost-effectively.
