OVERVIEW

Heather assists commercial real estate clients on a broad variety of end-to-end transactions nationwide.

Heather's collaborative attitude helps guide clients large and small through the acquisition, development, financing, disposition and leasing of commercial property. She represents commercial lenders and developers in construction financing projects, utilizing monetization of tax increment financing (TIF), Property Assessed Clean Energy financing (PACE), and other governmental incentives. Clients relying on Heather's counsel include lenders, owners, developers, tenants and landlords across industry sectors that include:

- Self storage
- Telecommunications
- Cannabis
- Hospitality and resorts
- Retail/Office/Industrial
- Mobile home parks
- Finance

Heather brings a business-minded perspective to her practice of law; clients value that Heather's legal counsel and due diligence is informed by her pre-law career as an environmental scientist. Additionally, Heather also served as
