OVERVIEW

Todd is a paralegal helping clients and attorneys navigate corporate matters.

Whether a leading hospital system is looking to expand business, a healthtech startup requires guidance during organization, or independent providers and investors seek help in structuring and growing business, Todd facilitates critical drafting and deadlines for clients and legal teams. With a client's needs squarely at the forefront, Todd coordinates end-to-end transactions, primarily in the healthcare sector, including:

- Corporate entities formation
- Mergers & acquisitions
- Reorganizations
- Joint ventures
- Member substitutions
- Affiliations
- Venture investments

Todd also assists legal teams and clients with compliance, governance, commercial contracting and record maintenance, among other corporate matters. He is appreciated for his eye for detail, and commitment to meeting critical deadlines. Todd believes that every case, and every client, equals new perspectives – and he enjoys streamlining customized solutions for each of them.
