OVERVIEW

Amy helps the firm deliver exemplary legal service to clients by providing ethics, compliance and conflict of interest due diligence and solutions.

Amy works closely with attorneys across the firm to review and identify issues surrounding conflicts of interest, ethics and compliance. She stays current with legal industry rules across jurisdictions. Amy implements policies to ensure compliance with such rules, always maintaining client confidentiality.

Amy's position ranges from preparing routine conflict waivers to providing practical solutions when unique circumstances arise. She enjoys being a go-to resource, allowing clients to have confidence that, as their legal matter moves forward, risk management and ethics are top of mind.
