OVERVIEW

Kate's passion for travel informs her approach to communication and problem-solving.

Kate believes in experiencing different cultures and ways of life, from arts and history to local cuisine. After visiting 29 countries around the world, she's learned that even when there is a language barrier, people can still communicate and find common ground.

And not everyone speaks the language of real estate law, so Kate kicked off her career putting that knowledge into practice, working one-on-one with clients when issues arose.

While she's passionate about travel, she also has a deep sense of home. A native Coloradan, Kate is excited to be working in real estate close to her roots.
