OVERVIEW

Katie defends clients in complex commercial litigation.

Katie is dedicated to helping clients with complex litigation matters ranging from insurance coverage disputes to breach of contract claims and is particularly experienced in the insurance and insolvency sectors. She has experience serving clients in receivership actions as well as multi-jurisdictional foreclosure actions. She approaches cases as puzzles to be solved and ensures creative solutions are crafted to meet client expectations. With a keen awareness of clients' needs, Katie's priority is to ensure the clients feel heard and that she fully understands their business situation and goals.

Whether sifting through discovery, drafting documents, or conducting research, Katie is steadfastly detail oriented and efficient to ensure clients receive the best outcomes and utmost service.
