Husch Blackwell's Moore and Larkin Named to 2021-22 Class of Leadership St. Louis

Husch Blackwell is pleased to announce that Christina B. Moore and Timothy P. Larkin have been selected to the 2021-22 class of Leadership St. Louis.

An initiative of FOCUS St. Louis, Leadership St. Louis (LSL) is a "highly respected program for experienced leaders who have demonstrated a deep commitment to improving the St. Louis region." The 2021-22 class—LSL's 46th—is comprised of 73 individuals from the private, public and nonprofit sectors.

Moore, senior counsel, is a healthcare litigator in Husch Blackwell's Healthcare, Education and Life Sciences group. Larkin is a senior associate and litigator in the firm's toxic tort, asbestos litigation and product liability practices.
