

ANTITRUST & COMPETITION

Husch Blackwell provides clients with key antitrust and competition law guidance on a range of challenges and opportunities, including corporate transactions and compliance issues. Our antitrust law team maintains a large network of contacts and resources—including federal enforcement agencies, state attorneys general, trade groups, and legislative policymakers—and delivers practical, real-world guidance to clients on their most complex and challenging matters.

When matters are global in scope, our team of antitrust lawyers works hand in hand with local attorneys on the ground in more than 100 countries. Husch Blackwell is a member of TerraLex, a select network of premier law firms around the world, ensuring that clients have instant access to leading antitrust and competition professionals around the world.

When litigation is unavoidable, our antitrust litigation team is fully integrated into our wider practice and works seamlessly with our corporate lawyers and industry teams to provide clients with end-to-end legal counsel.

Contact Information

Wendy K. Arends
608.258.7382
wendy.arends@
huschblackwell.com